

LA investor financing checklist

This is what I walk through with every investor before we look at a property.
Get these pieces ready and you can move fast when the right deal shows up.

1. Pick how you'll qualify

Program	Qualifies on	Usually a fit when
Conventional	Your personal income and tax returns	Your returns show strong income and you own a handful of properties
DSCR	The property's rent compared with its payment	Write-offs lower your taxable income, or you're buying in an LLC
Bank statement	12 or 24 months of deposits	You're self-employed and the rent alone doesn't cover the payment

2. Gather your documents

About you

- ☐ Photo ID
- ☐ Two months of statements for every account you'll use for the down payment and reserves (all pages)
- ☐ A list of real estate you already own: address, value, loan balance, monthly payment, rent
- ☐ Mortgage statements, insurance and tax bills for those properties

About the property

- ☐ Purchase contract, or the address if you're still looking
- ☐ Current lease, or a market rent estimate
- ☐ Homeowners insurance quote
- ☐ HOA name and monthly dues, if any

If you're buying in an LLC

- ☐ Articles of organization

- ☐ Operating agreement showing every owner and their share
- ☐ EIN letter from the IRS
- ☐ Certificate of good standing from the state

3. Have answers ready

- ☐ Long-term rental, short-term rental, or a mix?
- ☐ How many units? One to four units is residential financing. Five or more is commercial.
- ☐ How much do you have in reserves after closing?
- ☐ How long do you plan to hold it? Many DSCR loans carry a prepayment penalty, so the hold period matters.
- ☐ Personal name or LLC?

4. LA-specific things to check before you offer

- ☐ Rent control. Check if the building falls under the City of LA Rent Stabilization Ordinance or the statewide rent cap (AB 1482). It affects the rent you can count on.
- ☐ Unpermitted units. Appraisers and lenders may not count an unpermitted unit or ADU. Ask the seller for permits.
- ☐ Short-term rental rules. The City of LA requires registration for short-term rentals and limits them to your primary residence. Other cities have their own rules.
- ☐ Insurance. Get a quote early, especially in fire-prone areas. Insurance cost affects whether the numbers work.

Rules change. Confirm current requirements with the city and your agent before you rely on them.
